

Independent Broadcasting 1 August 1974 to 40 September 1984. Published Quarterly by the Independent Broadcasting Authority. Articles on Radio.

BELCHER, K. (1983) LBC and London's Health. Keith Belcher describes the local radio projects that gave sympathy and advice to 5,000 listeners in four weeks.

Independent Broadcasting, 34, 9 - 10

BOYLE, E. & BARTON, M. (1975) The Parliamentary Broadcasting Experiment. For the first time on the 9th June 1975 sound broadcasts from the House of commons were heard by the British public. Ed Boyle reflects on the month's experiment and Mike Barton describes the technical planning. Independent Broadcasting, 5, 10 - 11.

BRADFORD, J. (1980) Establishing a Radio Station. John Bradford, Managing Director of Mercia Sound and formerly of radio Tees, provides a case history of the setting-up of a new Independent Local Radio station - based on a talk given to the Local Radio Association. . Independent Broadcasting, 25, 7 - 10.

BRADFORD, J. (1981) Broadcasting Circles: The Community and ILR. John Bradford, Managing Director of Coventry's ILR station, Mercia Sound, gave the first of the 12918 IBA Lectures at the Authority's headquarters on 3rd March. Independent Broadcasting, 28, 2 - 8.

BRAHAM, C. (1975) Getting it Together in Swansea. Charles Braham, The Managing Director of Swansea Sound talks about the challenges and opportunities presented by a small radio station in South Wales. Independent Broadcasting, 6, 22 - 23.

CHAPMAN, I. (1976) Independent Local Radio at Work. Ian Chapman, Chairman of Radio Clyde, gave the second of this year's IBA Lectures at the Authorities headquarters on the 18th February 1976. . Independent Broadcasting, 7, 22 - 28.

CROSS, J. M. (1982) The Sound Broadcasting of Parliament. James M. Cross , gives a first report of findings from research at Leeds University into audience responses to the sound broadcasting of Parliament. Independent Broadcasting, 32, 16 - 17.

DEAN, A. (1981) Today's Radio Scene in Europe. Anthony Dean, the European

- Broadcasting Union's Director of Radio, gave this talk to Monte Carlo earlier this year. Independent Broadcasting, 30, 11 - 15.
- GORDON, J. (1974) ILR - The Pattern for the Future. James Gordon, Managing Director of Radio Clyde, reaffirming his belief in ILR as the basis for future radio broadcasting in the UK. from a recent address to the Local Radio Association. Independent Broadcasting, 1, 8 - 9.
- HAWKER, P. (1974) Between Two Ears - ILR's Solid Sound. All the ILR VHF stations are designed for stereophonic broadcasting. But even today only a small minority of listeners take advantage of having two ears. Pat Hawker looks at the development of stereo and some of the still unsolved mysteries of directional hearing. Independent Broadcasting, 2, 21 - 24.
- HAWKER, P. (1975) Radio that doesn't sound like radio. Pat Hawker, a Principal Engineering Information Officer at the IBA, traces the chequered history of the VHF/FM system. . Independent Broadcasting, 3, 25 - 27.
- HAWKER, P. (1979) WARC and the Channel Islands. Pat Hawker of the IBA's Engineering Information Service looks at the problems of allocating the world's limited spectrum of radio frequencies. . Independent Broadcasting, 21, 11 - 12.
- IBA (1974) Six into One Will Go - Engineering ILR. Independent Broadcasting, 1, 21 - 22.
- IBA (1975) An Early View of Sound Broadcasting. Independent Broadcasting, 5.
- IBA (1979) Moving Ahead with ILR. Independent Broadcasting, 21, 10 - 11.
- IBA (1979) Progress with ILR Expansion. Independent Broadcasting, 19, 12.
- IBA (1980) The Expansion of Independent Local Radio Independent Broadcasting, 25, 18.
- IBA (1980) ILR Progress. Independent Broadcasting, 26, 12.
- IBA (1981) ILR - 25 More Stations Proposed. Independent Broadcasting, 28, 12.
- IBA (1981) ILR progress. Independent Broadcasting, 30, 18.
- IBA (1983) Independent Local Radio 1973 - 1983. Special Supplement. . Independent Broadcasting, 37.
- IBA (1983) Musical Success for ILR. Independent Broadcasting, 35, 4.
- IBA (1983) Recent ILR Developments. Independent Broadcasting, 37, 8.

- INDEPENDENT BROADCASTING AUTHORITY (1977) The Annan Report. The Authority's Comments. 3: Local Radio Independent Broadcasting, 12, 9 - 16.
- JAMIESON, D. (1984) Good Presentation in Radio. David Jamieson, Presentation Controller of Viking Radio (Humberside). spoke at the ILR Programme Controller's Conference in June. Independent Broadcasting, 40, 14 - 16.
- JOHNSON, M. (1979) ILR Public Meetings. Mike Johnson, of the IBA's Radio Division, discusses one method of sounding-out public opinion. Independent Broadcasting, 20, 10 - 11.
- JOHNSON, M. (1980) A 'Non-BBC Brit' in Canada. Mike Johnson of the IBA's Radio Division, who spent four months in Canada on an Imperial Relations Trust travel bursary, records some personal impressions. . Independent Broadcasting, 25, 14 - 16.
- JOHNSON, M. (1982) Public Consolation: What's the point? Mike Johnson, Senior Radio Officer at the IBA, explains how public meetings, Local Advisory Committees and research play an important role in shaping and improving the Independent Radio Local output. Independent Broadcasting, 32, 18 - 19.
- MAKER, D., PARK, A., MASON, C. & STOLLER, T. (1976) IBA Consultation on Popular Programming on ILR. On 24th and 25th March the IBA held the first Consultation on Independent Local Radio at its Brompton Road headquarters. The subject was 'Popular Programming' and the following four short articles reflect some of the aspects of radio programming discussed at the Consultation. . Independent Broadcasting, 8, 19 - 21.
- MASON, A. (1984) Sounds Educational. Angie Mason, Senior Education Officer (Programme Support and Development) and formerly Education Officer (Radio) at the IBA, evaluates the educational potential of ILR. . Independent Broadcasting, 39, 3 - 5.
- PARDOE, F. (1976) Sound Advice. Frank Pardoe, The Chairman of the IBA's Local Advisory Committee for Independent Local Radio in Birmingham gives his personal views. Independent Broadcasting, 9, 12 - 14.
- PERKINS, S. (1984) 'Helping Hands': ILR Christian Christmas Charity Appeals. Steve

- Perkins, IBA Radio Programming Officer, describes ILR techniques for fund-raising, and policies for allocation of funds. Independent Broadcasting, 38, 13 - 14.
- REID, J. (1977) Capital Radio's Helpline. Jan Reid of Capital radio reports on the unique service provided for Londoners by the ILR general and entertainment station. . Independent Broadcasting, 14, 11 - 13.
- ROBSON, T. (1983) Engineering and ILR. Tom Robson, OBE, the IBA's Director of Engineering discusses the problems and possibilities. Independent Broadcasting, 37, 9 - 10
- SALTER, G. (1983) Developments in Radio Studio Construction. Geoff Salter, Studio Technical Systems Advisor in the IBA's Engineering Division. Independent Broadcasting, 36, 10 - 13.
- SMITH, T. (1975) News Across the Mersey. Terry Smith, Managing Director of Radio City, the first non-London station to begin 24-hour broadcasting, emphasises the importance of news and information programmes on ILR. Independent Broadcasting, 3, 6 - 8
- SMITH, T. (1976) As Millions Hear, Tony Stoller of the IBA's Radio Division, reviews recent information about ILR stations. Independent Broadcasting, 11, 24 - 25.
- STARKS, M. (1977) The Rewards of Growing Asparagus. Michael Starks, of the IBA's Radio Division, writes about the programmes on Independent Local Radio. . Independent Broadcasting, 11, 6 - 9.
- STEWART, M. (1977) The Best News We've Got. Marshall Stewart former Chief Editor of LBC/IRN, gave the last of this years IBA Lectures at the Authority's headquarters on 20th April 1977. . Independent Broadcasting, 13, 7 - 10.
- STOLLER, T. (1974) Phone-in programmes on Independent Local Radio. Tony Stoller, a member of the Radio Division at the IBA, takes a broad look at a much discussed type of broadcasting. Independent Broadcasting, 2, 7 - 8.
- STOLLER, T. (1975) Who Is Listening. Tony Stoller, of the IBA's radio staff, reports on recent audience surveys of Independent Local Radio Independent Broadcasting, 5, 18 - 22.

- STOLLER, T. (1976) Here is the (Motoring) News. Tony Stoller, of the IBA's Radio Division, reflects on the growing interest in broadcasting for motorists and its importance to Independent Local Radio. Independent Broadcasting, 10, 9 - 10.
- THOMPSON, J. (1975) Who Owns Independent Local Radio? John Thompson, The IBA's Director of Radio describes how local control and diversity of ownership have been important factors in the introduction of this new medium. . Independent Broadcasting, 6, 15 - 19.
- THOMPSON, J. (1976) The Shape of Independent Local Radio. John Thompson, The Director of Radio for the Independent Broadcasting Authority gave the first of this years IBA Lectures at the Authority's headquarters on 21st January 1976. The complete text of the lecture is recorded below. Independent Broadcasting, 7, 15 - 22.
- THOMPSON, J. (1980) Independent Local Radio: Looking Ahead. John Thompson, the IBA's Director of Radio, spoke at a joint IBA/BBC Seminar on "Radio - Art or Utility" held last August. . Independent Broadcasting, 23, 12 - 15.
- THOMPSON, J. (1983) Radio Rules, OK! John Thompson, The IBA's Director of Radio, included these comments in his speech at the 1983 Radio Festival held at Birmingham University in July. Independent Broadcasting, 36, 6 - 8
- THOMPSON, J. (1983) Radio: A Medium for the future. John Thompson, the IBA's Director of Radio, presented this lecture at the University College, Cardiff, on 9th March. . Independent Broadcasting, 35, 7 - 12.
- THOMPSON, J. (1984) The voice of the Listener. John Thompson, the IBA's Director of Radio, spoke to a meeting of the new 'Voice of the Listener' society at the Royal Festival hall in May. Independent Broadcasting, 40, 8 - 10.
- THOMPSON, J. & STARKS, M. (1978) Active Involvement of the Radio Audience. Independent Broadcasting, 15, 19 - 22.
- THORNTON, P. (1979) Broadcasting and Public Opinion in Race Relations. The text of a lecture given by Peter Thornton, Editor of Independent Radio News, to the Runnymede Trust in December 1978. Independent Broadcasting, 19, 10 - 12.
- VICK, D. (1978) Responding to Local Crisis. David Vick, of the IBA's Radio Division,

- reviews aspects of Independent Local Radio's community services. . Independent Broadcasting, 16, 9 - 11.
- VICK, D. (1981) The Public Impression of ILR. David Vick, of the IBA's Radio Division, reviews the findings of a recent research survey of the radio audience. . Independent Broadcasting, 28, 10 - 11.
- VICK, D. (1982) The Use of Radio - a research Perspective. David Vick, Senior Radio Officer at the IBA, discusses some ways in which audience research has helped to provide an understanding of listeners' use of radio. Independent Broadcasting, 33, 8 - 11.
- WARNOCK, M. (1980) Local Radio and the Listener. Mrs Mary Warnock, a member of the Independent Broadcasting Authority, gave the second of the IBA Lectures at the Authorities headquarters on 26th March. Independent Broadcasting, 23, 2 - 9
- WELLS, F. (1984) Recent Developments in ILR Programme Sharing. Felicity Wells, programming Executive, Association of Independent Radio Contractors (AIRC). Independent Broadcasting, 40, 3 - 5.
- WHITNEY, J. (1978) Tomorrow's Broadcasting: Radio. John Whitney, Managing Director and Programme Controller of Capital Radio, gave the Third of this year's IBA Lectures at the IBA's headquarters on 19th April 1978. Independent Broadcasting, 16, 12 - 18.